Can you run for Save the Mothers?

This group of enthusiastic volunteers (above, from left: Jane Anne Waller, Diane Reader Jones, Janice Wilson and Jocelyn Patrick) helped make Save the Mothers' participation possible at the Hamilton Marathon Road 2 Hope, for the first time ever last year. We don't want it to be our last.

This year, in addition to providing volunteers for the fun event, we also need to recruit 20 runners to participate. Runners can invite friends to sponsor them, and monies raised can be directed to Save the Mothers.

The Road 2 Hope Marathon is part of the Hamilton (Ontario, Canada) race weekend, November 5 - 6, 2016, which includes a 1K costume run, a 5K, 10K, half-marathon, half-marathon relay and a full marathon (which, incidentally, is the number one Boston Marathon qualifier in Canada). These races are popular events, with as many as 4,000 runners participating over the course of the weekend.

To register your intent to run for Save the Mothers, click on the button below. And then pick up the phone and tell a friend and help us reach our goal of registering 20 runners. (Or better yet, forward this newsletter to them.)

From June 10 - 11, the board of directors of Save the Mothers USA met to elect a new board chair, and to set strategic direction for the year ahead. Pictured above, at their annual meeting in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania are (from left) outgoing chair Dr. Stephen Noll, Jayne Gurley, John Lampard, Dr. Jean Chamberlain Froese and Dr. Daniel Scott. Joining the meeting electronically were Dr. William Gregory and incoming chair, Dr. Shaun Gillis.

Maybe it's because each of these folks is a "Game Changer" in their own right, but Dr. Jean took advantage of the photo opportunity to promote her new book, The Game Changers: True Stories About Saving Mothers & Babies In East Africa. You can be a Game Changer too! To find out how, order your copy of the book, by clicking on the link below.

If feels good to give

Has it been a while since you've felt how good it can feel to give? Don't delay! Give now, by clicking on the button below.

Delivering Change

Hundreds of people in 15 communities across Canada and the United States took "Steps to Deliver Change" on behalf of Save the Mothers last month. Read the reflections of communications director, Patricia Paddey in this blog post published days later.

Game Changers: Where Would Our World Be Without Them?

Recently, the blog featured an excerpt from the introduction to Save the Mothers' brand new book. For some eye-opening facts and statistics on life in East Africa, check out this blog post.

When personal tragedy

READ DELIVERING CHANGE

becomes passion

All the hard working people who serve as volunteers within the Save the Mothers organization are some of the biggest game changers around. Each one has their own personal reasons for volunteering. Read the story of one of our most committed volunteers, here.
