TICKETS ON SALE FOR SAVE THE MOTHERS' DINNER & AUCTION

HAMILTON, Ontario—Tickets are now on sale for Save the Mothers' Annual Dinner, Silent Auction and Live Auction.

The event – which is Save the Mothers' largest fundraiser each year – will be held Friday, November 18, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. at the Paradise Banquet and Convention Centre, 7601 Jane Street in Concord, Ontario. The theme of this year's event is "Jazz It Up."

In addition to live dancers and music by the Sheraton Cadwell Orchestra, the evening will be hosted by journalist Steve Paikin (of TVO's "The Agenda") and will feature a talk by Dr. Jean Chamberlain Froese, founder and executive director of Save the Mothers. Dr. Chamberlain Froese is an internationally recognized expert in women's reproductive health, and recipient of the Order of Canada for her commitment to saving the lives of women and babies in the developing world, where an estimated 800 women die each day of preventable causes related to childbirth.

"This is an opportunity for people in the community to make a difference on an important human rights issue, and have some fun," says Dr. Daniel Scott, managing director of Save the Mothers. "Doing something momentous doesn't have to be daunting. It can be as easy as purchasing a ticket for a fun evening out."

"Donations, sponsorships and ticket purchases will help ensure that preventable maternal death becomes tragedy of the past."
